

Red Dog Garden Services & Flowers by Red Dog

Why name a business after a type of dog? Having met the husband and wife team behind Red Dog Garden Services and Flowers by Red Dog, the answer is obvious!

Chris and Louisa Dawson of 'Red Dog Garden Services' and 'Flowers by Red Dog' are based on the Norwich Road in Cromer. The couple offer a complete garden and floristry service that prides itself on attention to detail and the personal touch. However, the real stars of the joint venture have to be the inspiration behind the company's names.

"The name 'Red Dog' came about because of our love of Setters. Our first dog, Phoebe, a Red or Irish Setter does more digging than Chris! So, we thought it only fitting to name the business after her."

Since 'Red Dog Garden Services' took off in January last year, with the help and support of The Cromer Times, business has gone from strength to strength and the couple have recently taken on their first full time employee, who is proving to be a real asset. Continued expansion is planned for this year both in terms of the business and the animal population in the Dawson household. 'Red' dogs of course!

'Red Dog Garden Services' offer a range of services including: landscaping and garden design; regular garden maintenance; fencing; paths and patios; decking; water features and of course planting. No job is too big or too small, so as the company slogan says, why don't you 'Let us do the Digging for you.'

'Flowers by Red Dog' provide a solution to all of your floral and design needs. Services vary from flower deliveries to Cromer and the surrounding areas to weddings, corporate events, funeral work and interior landscaping. A contract floristry service is also available for regular weekly or monthly displays, suitable for hotels, businesses and even private households and holiday homes. They can even deliver flowers for you nationally and internationally via the florists' relay company 'Flowergram.'
